From Chief Editor's Desk

 long with our best wishes and joy for a HAPPY NEW YEAR, I on behalf of ARPIT PUBLICATIONS, UDAIPUR derive once again immense satisfaction in placing THIRD Volume of "ARPITS FLOOR PATTERN GUIDES" in your hand. We feel quite optimistic that this guide shall also prove its utility as a TRADE TOOLS and would also prove to be conducive for the growth and development of stone and construction industries.

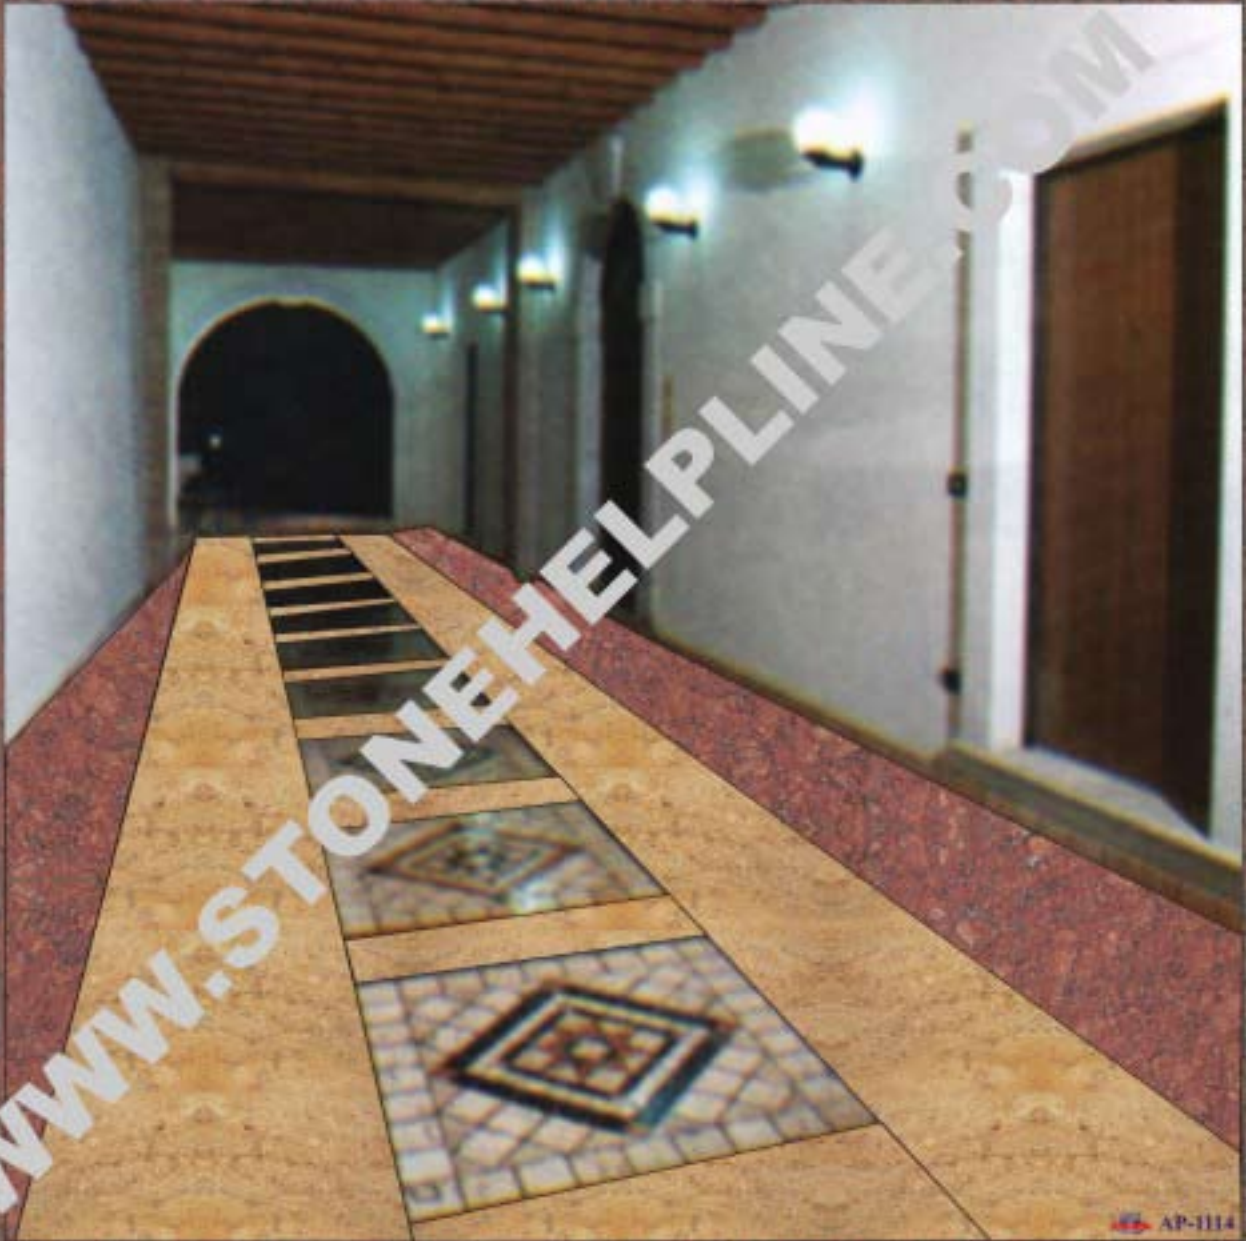

As per our statistical data our two previous volumes Ist & IInd of "Arpit's Floor Pattern Guides" have accumulates a lot of appreciation from the end of users as both the volume proved their full utilities everywhere. All these have encouraged and motivated us to publish & another Floor Patterns Guide along with Floor Display to understand and convince exactly what the look of floor will be of the rooms (dinning, living, bath, kitchens, balconies or others)after it would have laid down. This book was long awaited and we are very happy to put the same in your hands.

In addition to the above, we have also publish same pattern of Inlay & Outlay table tops at the last pages of this books, which are manufactured out of the hard and semi-precious stones. These table tops are also used in floor as centres or decorative purpose.

Your encouragement, suggestions and cooperation shall certainly prove to be life force for us. In hope of your valuable suggestions and comments.

Thanking you
yours

Mohan Bohara
